

POLICE SEEKING ENEMIES OF S. J. MERCHANT, SLAIN

Hunt Is On For Woman Once Employed By Candy Maker.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 16. — Chief of Police J. N. Black, and police detectives today sought a woman for possible evidence which might lead to the arrest of the assassin who late Sunday night shot to death, C. J. Hinds, wealthy local confectioner, in the rear of his residence in Hawthorne way.

Several minor clues, none of a tangible nature, Chief Black stated this morning, have been furnished from different sources and in each case are being run down with the greatest diligence, but this morning the slaying still was a mystery. Two men questioned by the police yesterday were later discharged, it being shown that they had no knowledge of the affair.

WORK OF ENEMY.

That the killing of Hinds was a coolly premeditated affair and that it was the work of a bitter enemy of the slain merchant, was the conviction of the authorities today. Every movement in the days before the slaying was being watched with the greatest vigilance, and it was believed that the police were working today. All efforts, however, to reveal the identity of the girl "Irene" had proved unsuccessful.

That a woman, known only to the police as "Irene," whom Hinds discharged from his employ recently because of the fact that she had been keeping company with a business competitor and because, Hinds believed, she had been giving secret information concerning his business, might be connected with the murder plot was one theory upon which the police were working today. All efforts, however, to reveal the identity of the girl "Irene" had proved unsuccessful.

Finger prints found on the window sill of the garage in front of which the confectioner was murdered today proved to be virtually worthless. Dust and smeared prints combined to make any deduction from this source almost impossible.

The revolver with which Hinds was shot, found with two empty chambers under a clump of bushes about 50 yards from the scene of the shooting, was another link in the evidence which the police are scrutinizing in the hope of making some headway. It is hoped that records will show the purchaser of the revolver.

MYSTERY AUTOMOBILE.

A mystery automobile seen in the vicinity of Hinds' residence on several occasions during the past week more, and seen at one time in the little lane lined by heavy growth of bushes in the rear of the place and adjoining the Hotel Vendome grounds, is still another clue. The license number of this car is known and efforts are being made to locate it.

Chief Black furthermore stated today that he has information concerning certain suspicious looking characters who were known to have been prowling in the vicinity of Hinds' residence on several occasions recently. A good description is held of these men and they are being sought by the authorities.

The slaying of C. J. Hinds recalled today the slaying in 1904 of J. B. Adams, husband of Mrs. Hinds' sister. Adams was slain by burglars whom he confronted in his home last night.

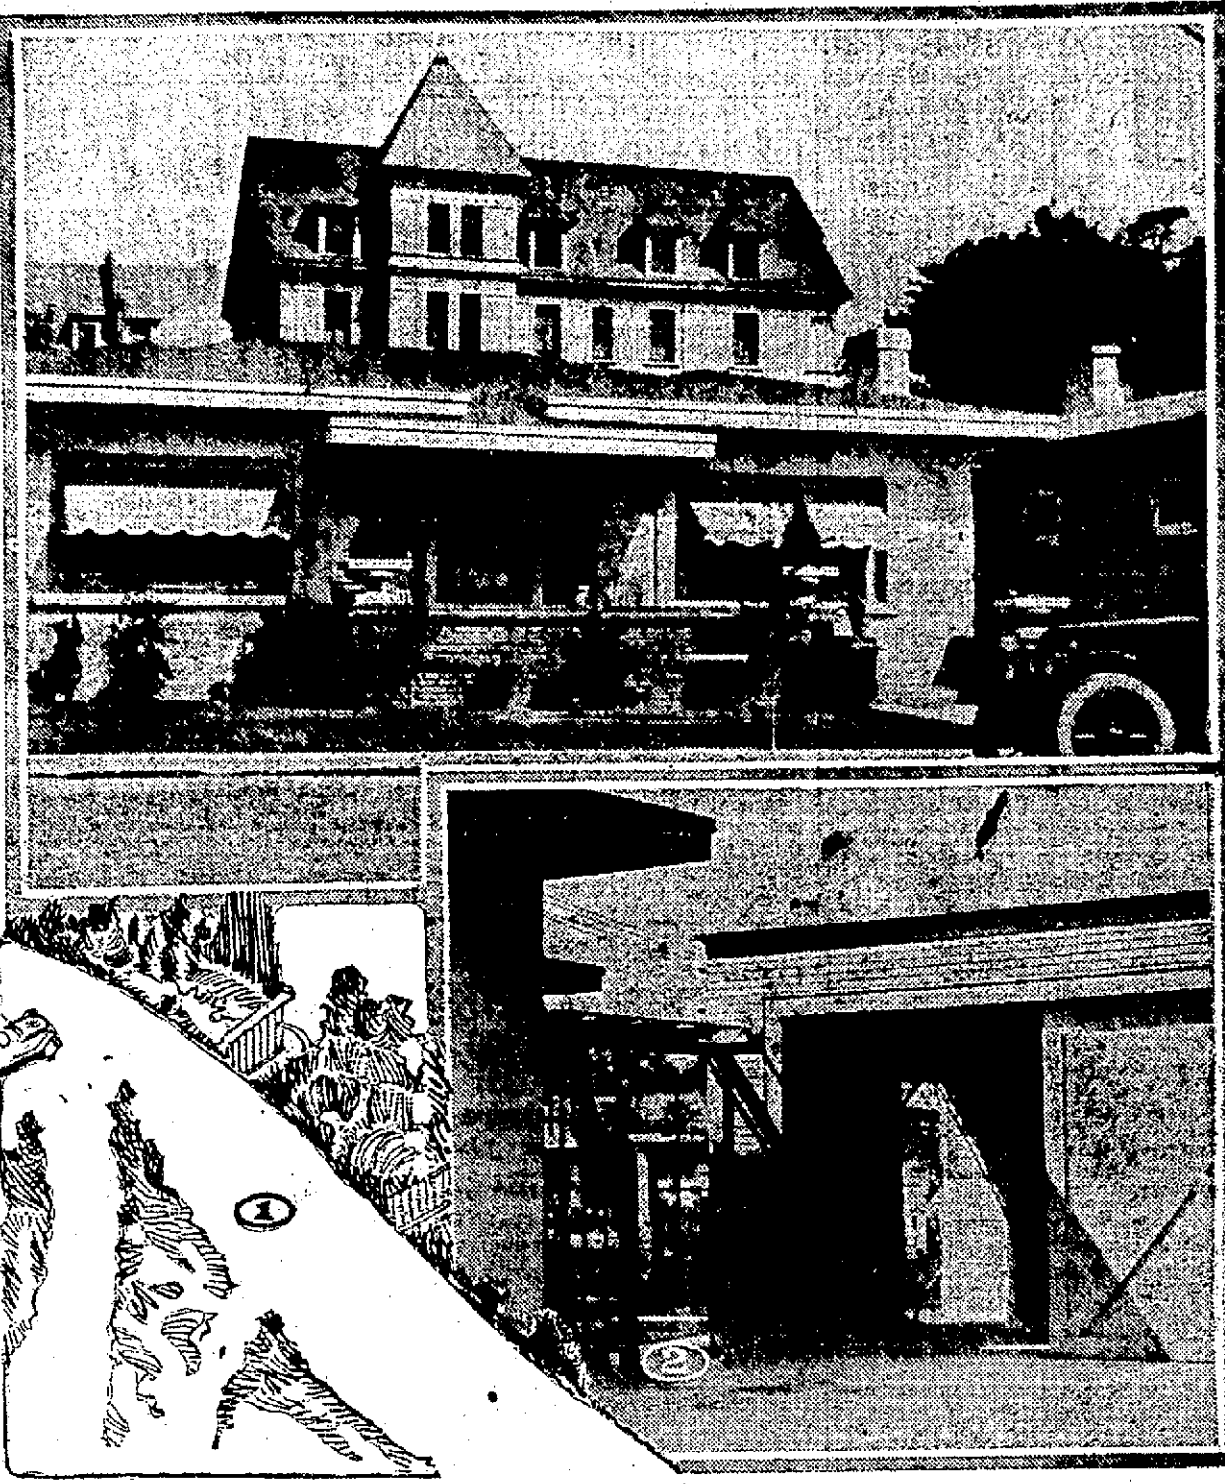

Arrangements were under way here today for the holding of the funeral services for the slain merchant tomorrow.

The system of preserving green fodder by ensilage was invented in France.

Dail Opening Halted by Irish Thousands' Ovation

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, Aug. 16.—Irish peace huns in the balance when Dail Eireann met here today. The Sinn Fein parliament is expected to be in secret session for two or three days debating the English peace proposals and deciding the next move, which would be to elect a new cabinet. Eamon De Valera will be authorized to make. Beginning early this morning thousands of persons gathered outside the Mansion House, the official residence of the lord mayor—and greeted the Sinn Fein officials with cheers as they arrived in groups. Prominent Irishmen came to Dublin from all parts of the island to witness the opening of the parliamentary session.

Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the republican army, and several persons who were among the earliest arrivals and they were given a tremendous ovation. Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff of the Irish republican army, slipped in without being recognized. He had acquired the habit of secrecy while the British authorities were scouring Ireland for him in the days before the armistice.

HUNDREDS HAIL GRIFITH. Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein and personal friend and advisor of De Valera, attempted to get through the crowd without being recognized, but was unsuccessful. Friends greeted him and when the crowd found out his identity hundreds rushed forward in an attempt to shake him by the hand.

But the biggest ovation of all was given to De Valera. The crowd burst into wild cheering when he appeared in an appearance. The air was filled with fluttering handkerchiefs and republican flags. De Valera bowed and smiled and waved his hat. He had great difficulty in getting past the hundreds of spectators who surrounded him.

Ireland Refuses Negotiation With Britain: De Valera

(By International News Service)

INDICATIONS that the Sinn Fein might break off peace negotiations with the British cabinet were contained in Eamon De Valera's speech before the Sinn Fein parliament at Dublin today. The most significant assertions in De Valera's speech were:

"The Irish Republic has been sanctioned by the will of the people and we solemnly declare we give our lives to make the expression of our principles and will die for them if necessary. The Irish people recognize only the Sinn Fein cabinet and Dail Eireann as their government. It is impossible to negotiate with the present British government, because it is like negotiating with a man holding a pistol to your head."

Dail Eireann, many of whom had been released from jail a week ago to attend the meeting, entered the council chambers. Immediately the speaker called for silence. The cheering and it was some minutes before quiet was restored.

The session was called to order at 11 o'clock by Speaker Kelly. After the speaker had taken the oath of office and the roll was called.

The first name called by the clerk was "Mr. Anderson," a Unionist from the North Ireland counties. There was no answer and the crowd broke into laughter at the thought of a Unionist—the most hostile opponents of the Sinn Fein in Ireland—attending a strictly anti-republican meeting.

Another name called early in the roll was that of Sir James Craig, premier of the government of Ulster. There was no response. Sir James was in Belfast, far away from the gathering of republicans.

The clerk called in all 130 names. Of these 130 were Sinn Feiners and 45 were Unionists. One hundred and twenty-seven Sinn Feiners answered the roll call.

After the members had taken the oath the assemblage began electing officers. The deliberative sessions will be conducted in secrecy and nothing will be known as to the Sinn Fein's decision until after an official communiqué is issued. It is probable that a communiqué will not be given out until the parliament has completed its work.

The speaker was interrupted by applause when he said the Irish would die for the principles they held dear.

Five women were sworn in as members of the Parliament, including Countess Marckiewicz, who was released from prison not long ago.

Sean Kelly, the speaker, declined to accept the position was given to Dr. McNeill.

Frank P. Walsh of Kansas City and New York occupied a seat on the speaker's platform.

There were a large number of women in the speaker's gallery. The walls of the room were decorated with the coats of arms of the Dublin lord mayors since 1821.

When it came time to sign the roll, after the oaths had been administered, Mike Collins was the first to put down his signature and Arthur Griffith, who sat beside him, signed next, amidst an outburst of cheers.

of this board's policy, to be decided right now."

The board adopted the resolution. The session began with a report from Efficiency Expert Cook, who estimated that it will take $1,755,000 to keep the elementary schools going for the coming year and $1,117,000 for high schools. This only includes salaries and supplies. Cook recommended curtailment of everything but the essential work of the department in order that schools could run the full 200 days. A motion to adopt the report ensued.

"Why adopt it?" asked Hatch.

"We want the board members on record," said Boyle.

The motion was lost. The report was filed.

The letter from Mayor Davis was then read, suggesting that enough money be impounded to assure the salaries of teachers for 200 days, and also suggesting that no contracts be entered into, because prices may later be even lower than present when buying materials. This letter was filed.

The matter of the continuation of the night schools then came up. Mayor Davis and others have held that the large number of night schools is not justified and much money can be saved by having just one or two.

"Night schools cost $116,000 last year, but there is a big public demand for them," said Superintendent of Schools Fred Hunter. "The decision is up to the board."

"It seems to me that the superintendent might make a suggestion once in a while to save money," said Director Campbell.

"There seems to be a misunderstanding," said Hunter. "Economy is the trend of the day. I am willing to co-operate, but I have been given no opportunity. For instance, I did not know of Efficiency Expert Cook's report on the matter of night schools. These things come up without my knowledge. If you desire, I can get you a report on the night schools in fifteen minutes."

The offer was not taken up but it was agreed that a report on these schools will be given at an adjourned meeting of the board on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Bids on improvements on Grant and Longfellow schools then came up. After which the battle started about bids and awards for about $2000 worth of school lockers.

In the bids already received, it was alleged that the second lowest bidder had the best goods, so the award was supposed to go to him. Merchants, however, appeared before the board and said they did not know of the matter in time to bid. The matter was reopened and the board agreed to disagree.

A motion to reject all bids and re-advertise was lost. A motion to give the contract to the lowest bidder was lost. A motion that favored the second lowest was lost. At the end of the session the matter ended in a general laugh. The subject will be brought up again Wednesday.

The resignation of J. A. Thomas as insurance adviser to the board was accepted and insurance matters go back to the business department.

De Valera's Demand For Free Republic Startles England

there was absolutely no change in the position, so far as Ulster was concerned.

BRITAIN PREPARES TWO ALTERNATIVES.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(International News Service).—The British government is fully prepared to deal instantly with Ireland in the event the peace negotiations collapse. The government has outlined the following two alternatives in the event the armistice is renounced:

1. If the Sinn Feiners do not attempt violence, Great Britain will institute crown colony rule in Ireland under the home rule law.

2. If the conflict is renewed, all Sinn Fein Ireland will be put under martial law and all civil governments will be abrogated.

DE VALERA SPEECH AMAZES LONDON.

British officials in Downing street were amazed this afternoon when informed of the contents of Eamon De Valera's speech before Dail Eireann in Dublin, reiterating his demand for an Irish republic and announcing that the Sinn Fein could negotiate further with the British cabinet.

Premier Lloyd George had already departed for the House of Commons to make a statement on Upper Silesia when the International News Service correspondent called at his official residence.

It was learned that however provocative De Valera's words might be construed, no reply would be made until a formal statement from Dail Eireann is received.

De Valera's speech was interpreted as an apparent rejection of the English peace terms.

Hightower Again Under Most Severe Grilling

fore Judge Ellis C. Johnson at Daly City.

A reward of $1000 was offered today by San Mateo county authorities for Hightower's alleged accomplice in the kidnapping and murder, "dead or alive." Authorities believed also today that they had located the spot at which Hightower had set up his infernal machine on the Colma highway, so arranged that it would have dealt death to whoever brought the ransom demanded.

"I'LL SWING ALONE," DECLARES PRISONER.

Some significance is being placed by the authorities in two minor developments of the day. Hightower had been given a detective story to read and when he had finished it was found that the following had been underlined:

"But it is clear to me that the murderer of these two people, Mr. Bruce and his child, Vernie Reed, used the poison I have told you of. I read about them," said Pennington Wise, "they included a rare drug only to be obtained from South America."

Asked why he had marked the passage, the prisoner only said: "It is a good detective story but a poor love story."

After a visit of Stuart Hightower is said to have exclaimed, "If they swing me for this I'll swing alone!" He would add nothing to the remark.

and later explained that he had to say something and that was all that came to his mind.

Personal effects of the prisoner's were transferred today from the Hall of Justice in San Francisco to the San Mateo county jail by Constable S. A. Landini of Daly City. Much of this property, it is understood, will be introduced as evidence at the preliminary examination and trial.

Hightower Thought Son of Old Feudist

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 16.—Is William Hightower, charged in San Francisco with the murder of Father Patrick Heslin, a member of a family of feudists?

Colonel Thomas Holt of Salem, who arrested Jake Hightower in Illinois in 1883 for murder, believes the notorious old feudist is William Hightower's father.

According to Colonel Holt, four Hightower brothers were arrested in Illinois in 1883 for murder. Two of them, including Jake, were convicted, but later freed, and shortly after Jake Hightower came west.

Colonel Holt is sure the man held in California is the son of the man who helped arrest forty years ago charged with a similar crime.

RANK AND FILE STRIKE TO END SOON, FORECAST

Central Labor Council of County Votes Settlement By Committee.

Possible settlement of the strike of the Rank and File Federation of Workers of the Eastbay, the so-called "outlaw" union of the affiliated building trades, was presaged last night at a meeting of the Alameda County Central Labor Council, when a resolution, without a dissenting vote from the representatives of the fifty-one unions present, referred the matter to the executive committee for settlement.

It was the opinion of the union representatives, according to those present, that an early settlement of the differences between the recognized union bodies, the builders and the Rank and File should be effected soon.

A willingness of leaders of the Rank and File to effect a settlement of the present strike is also being manifested, officials of the San Francisco Labor Council, which body voted against the strike, stated today. Request of the general conference committee of the Rank and File to M. C. Sloss, of the wage scale adjustment committee, to meet with Archbishop Edward J. Hanna and Theodore A. Bell, to confer with delegates from the unions and the Rank and File, indicated, the officials said, that the outlaw strikers were ready to discuss settlement terms.

COMMITTEE IS READY. With the proposal of the conference committee of the Rank and File to meet with the wage scale committee, Sloss declared that the committee possessed no power to enter the controversy at present, but that as private citizens it would meet with any representatives of either faction at any time desired.

However, W. H. George, chairman of the conference committee of the Builders' Exchange of San Francisco, announced that the organization does not intend dealing with the Rank and File Federation of Workers.

Concerning the situation, George said: "The Builders' Exchange does not propose to deal with this so-called Rank and File Federation of Workers, because they do not seem to represent anybody but themselves. We have submitted to the unions the plan upon which we will accept men for building trades employment. No other proposal will be accepted."

"There has been more building activity in San Francisco today or during the latter part of last week, than any day since the strike, or lockout, or whatever the Rank and File term it. The situation is getting better for the Builders' Exchange every day."

PIEDMONT BARS MEN. While committee members of the Rank and File refused to comment today on the refusal of the Builders' Exchange to deal with them, James Dewar, chairman of the adjustment committee of the general conference committee of the Rank and File, declared that in the event of such action by the Builders' Exchange, the committee from the Rank and File would deal directly with the contractors and builders.

At the meeting last night of the Rank and File in the Building Trades Temple in San Francisco, indignation was at a high pitch over the decision of Police Judge Sylvester McAtee in the dismissal of the charges against the Builders' Exchange, which was on trial for violation of the Cartwright law. Dewar introduced a resolution scoring Judge McAtee for his decision and absolute dismissal of the charges against W. H. George and Charles W. Gompers, president of the organization.

Notification that all bodies of union men who entered the limits of the city of Piedmont would be summarily dealt with was sent to the headquarters of the Rank and File yesterday by Chief of Police E. J. Becker. Chief Becker's announcement of drastic measures to be enforced followed an attempt by fifty union members to storm the new Piedmont High School building, under construction, to call about 100 men off the job. The men were met by a squad of police, heavily armed, and ordered to leave the city.

STEWART'S AUTO STOLEN. The automobile of W. F. Poo, steward of the Elks' Club, was stolen from his home last night. The police of the Eastbay district have been requested to look for the machine.

Four Men and Woman Figure in Coast Murders

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—

Four men and a woman are under charges of murder in four sensational cases on the Pacific Coast. They are Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur Burch, accused of murdering J. Belton Kennedy at Los Angeles; William A. Hightower, charged with kidnapping and killing the Rev. Father Patrick Heslin; Dr. R. M. Brumfield, Roseburg, Oregon, dentist, accused of murdering Dennis Russell, and James Mahoney of Seattle, charged with murdering his bride, Kate Mahoney.

And here is how they spent today: Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur Burch had the comfort of friends standing by them—Ralph Obenchain, divorced husband of Madalynne, working night and day to perfect her defense; and the Rev. W. A. Burch, father of Arthur, stoutly proclaiming his son's innocence.

William Hightower alternately grumbled, talked of poetry and refused breakfast.

Dr. Brumfield was on a train en route from Calgary, Alberta, to Roseburg. He reiterated that he was not Dr. Brumfield, but Dennis Russell, the man he is accused of murdering.

James Mahoney spent the hours while awaiting arraignment this afternoon, calling his shoes canaries and begging them to sing.

WHITE RIBBONS
WAVING IN S. F.;
DELEGATES COME

Leaders of W. C. T. U. Arriving For 48th Annual Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—White ribbons are a predominant feature along Market street today. Delegates to the forty-eighth annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union have begun their pilgrimage into the city where forty years ago Miss Frances E. Willard claimed to have received her inspiration for the founding of a world-wide temperance organization. For the first time in the history of the woman's temperance society a national convention is being held on the Pacific Coast.

Miss Anna C. Gordon, president, and twenty-three national officers arrived in San Francisco last night. Early this morning the "White Ribbon Special" in which they traveled from Chicago to Truckee, where they left the sightseeing train to travel to the convention city arrived with 150 prominent temperance leaders aboard. They were welcomed by a large committee of California women, headed by Mrs. Sara J. Dorr and Mrs. Anna Marden DeLoe and escorted to Hotel Whitcomb, where official headquarters have been established. Mrs. Elia A. Poole, national vice-president-at-large, from Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived a few hours in advance of the executive officers.

BOARD MEETING HELD.

An important board meeting is in session today, preliminary to the opening of the convention on Thursday morning in the Civic Auditorium. Among the leaders who participated in the deliberations were Miss Elia A. Poole, vice-president, Mrs. Frances E. Poole, national corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Perkins, director of child welfare; Mrs. Alexander Owens, director of the department of scientific temperance instruction; Mrs. Laura Miller, director of women in industry; Miss Bertha Brown, director of public policy; Mrs. Margaret C. Munns, treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, national recording secretary; Mrs. Sara Hoge, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Deborah K. Livingston, director of citizenship; Mrs. Culla J. Vayinger, director of Americanization; Mrs. Maude Perkins, secretary of the young people's branch; Miss Julia E. Deane, editor of the "Union Signal," the W. C. T. U. organ; Mrs. Mary B. Platt, superintendent of literature. The registration bureau was opened this afternoon in the Civic Auditorium. Fully 1000 accredited delegates will be in attendance upon the opening session of the annual meeting which is declared by the committee in charge to be the most important of the year.

Prohibition AgentsOver 50 Are Barred

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Can a man be a prohibition agent? It is a question which has been asked many times in the past. Evidently R. A. Haines, Commissioner of Federal Prohibition, does not think so, for he has sent word to the Chicago offices not to employ any liquor sleuths who are not on the sunny side of the half century mark.

"A prohibition agent has to take a lot of physical risks," said John Kjellander, state prohibition director. "His best years of service naturally are when he is young, when his eyesight is good and his feet are agile."

Rattlesnake FightsFishermen of Chico

CHICO, Aug. 16.—J. S. Brown, local Southern Pacific agent, and H. C. Bicknell, local business man, had an exciting battle with a large rattlesnake while fishing in the Sacramento river near here. The rattler crawled across the path of the two fishermen as they were leaving the stream. Bicknell hit the snake with an oar from their boat, but the blow proved futile and the reptile sprang at its assailant. Brown then drew a revolver and shot the snake in the head. It had eleven rattles and a button.

Cotton Spinning IsReported Improving

MANCHESTER, Aug. 16.—The Federation of Master Cotton Spinners Association has decided to increase work in mills using American cotton to 35 hours weekly against the present short-time of 24 hours. The mills using Egyptian cotton will immediately resume full time working.

Knitting was not invented until the art of weaving had been practiced for centuries.

FRENCH SCENESOF DEVASTATION*QUICKLY FADING

BOISSONS, France, Aug. 15.—Nature is making such rapid progress in healing the scars of war in France that, outside of towns where ruins are still standing, it will soon be impossible to discover the famous front line of four years of war without close examination.

It has become evident that the abandoned project of maintaining intact, as it existed at the close of hostilities, the line from Neuport in Belgium, to Belfort, as a lesson to future generations, could not have been carried out excepting at an enormous expense.

Forests that were supposed to have been annihilated have shown remarkable recovery. Positions that were upheaved repeatedly until the subsoil covered the surface almost completely, giving every appearance of hopeless aridity, have been slowly covered by vegetation.

Even the famous height along which runs the Chemin des Vosges (the Ladies' Way) is covered with thick herbage, that remains green in spite of the drought. In order to preserve certain famous walled scenes such as the Bastion Trench at Verdun, it was necessary to erect a shelter and protect the trench from the slow but sure work of nature in order to preserve it as it was during the great battle.

NEW CHEMISTRYHAS SILK PURSE*FROM SOW'S EAR

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 16.—A silk purse made from sows' ears, as chemistry's answer to the old saying that it couldn't be done, will be shown at the chemistry exposition in New York during the week of September 12.

In announcing the successful result of the experiment, Arthur D. Little, Inc., chemists and engineers of this city said the silk was not very strong and that there was no present industrial value in the process involved. It was more or less a contribution also to philosophy in proving the fallacy of the old proverb.

In reciting the factors that entered into the transition of sows' ears from Chicago towards to a silk purse such as a woman might carry the chemists explained that the first step was to analyze the silkworms' method of making silk. This done, its catapillar chemistry was copied in the laboratory.

TEMPLE SINAI IS REPORTED ROBBED

The Temple Sinai at Twenty-ninth and Broadway was entered by burglars and ransacked some time Sunday evening. Entrance was gained by forcing a rear door and a number of doors leading into the rooms were jammed and the lockers ransacked. A blue serge coat was taken from one of the lockers.

This is the second church to be reported entered by burglars. The first being the First Presbyterian church at Twenty-sixth and Broadway. In the Presbyterian church the burglars jammed the outside door but failed to untasten the inner door. They took the contents of two collection boxes.

What's Happening in the Motor World

By Jim Houlihan

C. M. Steves, vice-president and sales manager of the Durant Motor Company of California, is back after a flying trip through the Northwest, where he visited all the important automobile distributing centers, and while there signed up some very important dealer contracts.

Steves says that his company has already disposed of 80 per cent of the territory controlled by the California company, and from every locality has come dozens of requests from dealers who are anxious to handle the Durant car. In discussing this situation Steves says: "We are in the enviable position of having dealers seek our contracts without any solicitation from us. Not once have we gone after a dealer, which has given us the privilege of hand-picking our dealers so that we are absolutely sure we have just the right firm to handle our car in every territory. It is surprising how many requests for territory came in, as the announcement of the Durant car was still warm from the press when requests for territory started to pour in. After weighing the applicants from every angle, we have now decided on who shall handle the Durant car in most of our territory.

Sometimes it is advisable to secure a dealer who is not simply able to finance himself, whereas he enjoys the greatest public esteem and confidence in his territory, and after long investigation if we come to the conclusion that he is willing and knows how to give better service than others in his territory with a larger bank account, we have invariably decided on the fellow who has the public with him, and have arranged a financial system very similar to that organized and put into successful practice by W. C. Durant while he was president of the General Motors Corporation. We desire that a dealer who only lacks financial assistance to become the leader in his territory is far more desirable than one with any amount of money but unwilling to give the public the proper service.

An idea of the high class dealers that we have selected to handle the Durant car may be had by referring to our announcement some time back that the Earle C. Anthony Co. had been selected to handle the Durant line in the Los Angeles territory, Sacramento territory, San Francisco county, San Mateo county, Alameda county and Contra Costa county.

EASTBAY CLUBS MAP FIGHT PLAN FOR FREE PORT

Denunciation of Jones Bill Also Is Promised At Kiwanis Luncheon.

Appointment of committees by executives of clubs and business organizations of Oakland, today or in the near future, to consider separate indorsement of the proposed free port project for the Eastbay, and denunciation of the Jones bill now before Congress, was promised by Abe Leach, president of the Kiwanis club, yesterday, following a luncheon at which the project was explained in detail by Nathaniel Davis, editor of the Pan-Pacific Magazine. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Kiwanis club and was attended by hundreds of representatives of other organizations.

At the conclusion of the meeting, immediately following Davis' address, Leach, who acted as chairman, declared that while he would take no action nor himself appoint committees, he could promise that the organizations represented would favorably consider the project and take some action that would be satisfactory to the speaker.

It was stated today that resolutions in favor of the free port would probably be passed by the different business organizations of the city as a result.

SEES MANY BENEFITS.
"If a free port is established here, a naval base, a bridge spanning San Francisco bay, and other projects deemed essential by residents of the Eastbay region, will follow automatically," said Davis.

"A free port does not mean free trade. It is a compliment of a protective policy. It merely means a port where free trade will not be hampered or a free zone. We are losing our share of the world trade, and delay after delay is responsible for it. Under a free port a vessel could enter and reship its goods without paying additional duty, which would be an inducement."

"History indicates," he added, "that the great business of transportation makes great ports. Amsterdam, a badly situated port, controlled the world's commerce until 1861, when London became a free port under the original flag act. Under that policy London became the greatest port. It was merely an illustration of what a free port meant to the world and what it means today."

JONES BILL RAPPED.
"Of the world's $4,000,000,000 re-shipment trade, our share is only $40,000,000. My contention is that the logical port for the establishment of a foreign industrial one is where the greatest business may be secured, and that is on the east side of San Francisco bay. Such a zone necessitates federal action just as contemplated in the Jones bill. It sets aside an area on the waterfront which can be protected from smuggling and which is large enough for factories and warehouses. When this is completed, such

Tribune Plans Another Picture Party For Kids

KIDDIES of the Eastbay region, keep your ears wide open and be sure that your eyes are in good trim so as not to miss a single word of this article. Here is some news that will make you want to stand on your hind legs and turn somersaults. The TRIBUNE and the American Theater together are arranging another one of those wonderful big free moving picture and juvenile entertainments for Saturday, August 20. The moving picture part of the show is being given by Manager Roy Midgley of the American Theater and the title of the picture to be shown is "DON'T CALL ME LITTLE GIRL," which will be the headline all next week at the regular American Theater show. Dainty little Mary Miles Minter, more captivating than ever, has the leading part in the play. The TRIBUNE's Aunt Elsie and 50,000 Club are arranging the juvenile part of the entertainment and believe us, it will be some show.

Here are some of the clever juvenile favorites who will take part, including a number of the best known performers and several new and talented ones: Evelyn Cavanaugh, Betty Jane Teeple, Bernice Clare Johnsen, Gladys Silva, Alberta Blair, Dorothy Burke, Adele Pasquale, Josephine and Bernice de Pasquale, Wilbur Bradburn, Carol Hamerton and Mildred Mitzman. These clever kiddies will all have new songs, dances and acts to offer you. And there's some more good news for you which will be told later on this week, but just as a little tip to you it is one of the greatest surprises that you could ever dream about. Something that will make you smile and then smile some more.

The show is absolutely free to every boy and girl reader of the famous Aunt Elsie Kiddie Club and your mothers, too. Be on hand before 9:30 in the morning, as the show starts promptly at that hour. Bring your smile along, and also, your good behavior, as only girls and boys who can conduct themselves in the proper manner will be allowed to attend the show.

goods as are to pass into domestic use pass through the customs in the form of a bonded cargo. The goods are to be exported, repacked, reclassified and sent out without delay and unnecessary expense.

It is questionable," he continued, "whether any other single trade development here is equal in importance with this one. It probably exceeds the naval base and the bridge in consequence to Oakland because it means not only immediate expenditures but large payrolls."

Davis criticised the Jones bill, declaring it contained at least one clause that was vicious, and said that if the bill went through there would be a possibility that a free port could never be located on this side of the bay, the logical point.

Teachers' Municipal Homes Held Illegal

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16.—Clergy-men are entitled to parsonages, but not so with teachers. So rules Attorney General U. S. Webb in an opinion to Will C. Wood, director of the State Department of Education, which has placed in doubt the status of approximately 115 "teacherages" in California.

The teacherages are in reality municipal homes for school teachers, provided as an added inducement to teachers who have suffered from the housing problem. They were authorized by school trustees in the several districts.

"I have no intention of ordering that the teacherages already built be torn down," said Wood, "but until the question is clarified it will be impossible to build any more."

FILIPINO BEAUTY ON WAY TO RENO TO SEEK DIVORCE

Mrs. Tuason, Society Favorite of Manila, Would Be Rid of Legally Dead Spouse.

Across the seas from Manila to Reno, Nev., is a long trip, especially for a woman, but Mrs. Maria S. Tuason, Filipino beauty and society favorite, is making it. She has arrived in San Francisco preparatory to the last lap of her journey to a locality where she expects to rid herself of the matrimonial yoke which binds her to Senator Tuason. Mrs. Tuason arrived from Victoria, B. C., where she landed a few days ago from Yokohama, on the transpacific steamer Empress of Asia.

All home ties were severed when Mrs. Tuason left her estate settled and other matters cleared, she said. Accompanying her was her adopted son, Robert Ordano, DeLois College student, who has been in the United States for eight years.

Her present dilemma, according to Mrs. Tuason, precipitated by overlapping divorce laws of the Philippines and the United States, has caused her much anguish. Her husband is "dead," and yet he is not, she said, with a very smile, in commenting on her troubles. According to Spanish law, he is dead, but on the other hand, American law says he is living.

Despite the fact that he left her for twelve years, Mrs. Tuason said her husband, after he had been declared legally "dead," appeared again and after ascertaining what action she had taken against him, instituted suit for divorce through sensational charges which upset society in the island group. The suit was unsuccessful, and Mrs. Tuason left for America.

At Yokohama, a polite but firm Spanish official displayed to her a certificate which swore she was a Spanish citizen, and ordered her back to Manila, Mrs. Tuason said, but after consulting with American and English consular officials and lawyers, she locked herself in her state-room and refused to leave until the ship was at sea, according to Mrs. Tuason's story.

After securing her divorce, Mrs. Tuason announced that she would travel around the world, spending much time in European capitals.

In 1917 Liverpool was mentioned in a petition to Queen Elizabeth as "Her majesty's poor decayed town."

Inspector Scores Merritt Boat House

A report scoring the condition of sanitary facilities at the Lake Merritt boat house was submitted to Mayor Davis today by J. E. Francis, deputy plumbing inspector, who recommends that the entire place be rebuilt.

The word "insanitary" is the mildest in the report. The report has been sent by Mayor Davis to the park department. Meantime, it has been suggested that control be given the playground department. Instead, and this move has received consideration from the mayor and

Liquor Brings Fine Of $50 To Owner

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—Joseph Corond, a restaurant keeper at 1312 Washington street, was fined $50 for having liquor on his premises by Federal Judge Rudkin. Corond told the court he had the whiskey there for cooking purposes, but could not explain the fact that there was a large quantity of it. John Ardella of Martinez, was fined $50 for the same offense.

SUCH RESULTS ASTONISH MRS. J. HERNBERGER

"Tanlac just keeps me feeling fine all the time, and I think it's the greatest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Jennie Hernberger, of 826 Lucile ave., Los Angeles. Mrs. Hernberger also owns a home at Hermosa Beach, where she spends a great deal of her time, and is highly respected by a wide circle of friends.

"It was a little over two years ago that I first used Tanlac and I got such wonderful results from it that I have taken a bottle of it every few months since just as a general tonic. Before I began taking the medicine I was so weak and worn out I could hardly look after my household. My appetite was so poor I could scarcely eat anything and what I did manage to eat seemed to give me no nourishment. I felt tired out and miserable all the time.

"All my efforts to find anything to help me failed until I tried Tanlac, but I commenced improving right from the day I started taking this medicine, and four bottles built me up fifteen pounds in weight and made me just as healthy as I could expect to be.

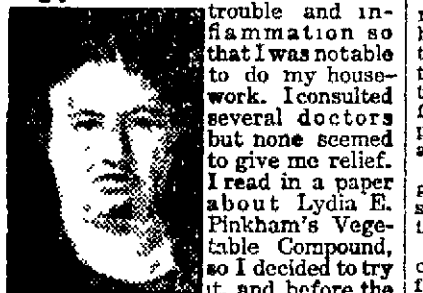

"My daughter had a real nervous breakdown and the way Tanlac helped her was simply astonishing. As I said I take the medicine every once in a while now as a tonic and give it to the children, too, and it keeps us all in good health all the time. I just can't praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for us.

Tanlac is sold in Oakland by the Owl Drug Company and leading druggists everywhere. — Advertisement.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va.—"For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation so that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to try it, and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women. — Mrs. BERTHA LINDING, B. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backache, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Lindling's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THROUGH drinking the FONG WAN HERB TEA, Mr. D. J. Handy, a pioneer timberman of Nehalem, Oregon, has obtained prompt relief from stomach trouble of many years' standing. His testimonial reads:

"I suffered from Stomach Trouble for years. The pain gradually became so severe that I could neither drink nor sleep. I also had catarrh, and my blood pressure caused a continuous pounding in my head. Finally, I became so ill that I could scarcely walk around. After having been treated by physicians in Oregon, my home state without getting any relief, I was again treated by various medical men without result. Finally, my brother took me to drink the FONG WAN HERB TEA, which helped me almost immediately. After I had taken the first week's treatment, I was able to sleep and eat well. Now the high blood pressure is gone and the catarrh has given way. I feel very grateful to you and to the marvelous skill of the Fong Wan Specialists, as life has ceased to be a burden. I am eighty years old and am happy to give this testimonial. — (Signed) D. J. HANDY, 44 Olive St., Oakland, Cal.

THE FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST has recently returned from China with a select supply of fresh herbs for all ailments. Mr. D. J. Handy, whose foregoing testimonial is given, is but one among thousands who bear witness to the wonderful ability of this Specialist to afford relief from suffering.

LONDON EDITOR IS OPTIMISTIC OVER PEACE MEETING

Conference Called By Harding To Be Presage of Changed Thought.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The powers of the world must first disarm the minus of their subjects before they can disarm their fleets.

This is the message brought by Henry Wickham Steed, editor of the London Times, who spoke at a luncheon at the Palace Hotel, attended by more than 1000 members of the One Hundred Per Cent Club, the San Francisco Advertising Club, Rotary Club, Lions Club and the Downtown

Steed was welcomed by M. H. De Young, who told the guests at the luncheon that Steed would no doubt return to England and write his opinions of America, and compare Americans with those of his own country. In reference to the possible outcome of the contest, De

"Talking of criticism of this country: Many years ago a man by the name of Charles Dickens wrote a book criticizing us, after having been in this country just six weeks. He wrote a wonderful criticism. He told us all about our shortcomings and our anticipations. Since that time this country has gone ahead just the same as if Dickens had never written that book, and now if he could come back and see the customs of this country as compared with his criticisms, he would see how ridiculous he was."

Steed, who is here for the purpose of finding out for himself just what America thinks about the coming conference of the leading powers at Washington, in December, to talk disarmament, said, in part:

2 J— "When the first tentative suggestion came from President Harding seeking to learn if countries

"Men were tired of conferences. The Paris conference had not yielded as much as we had hoped for. There had been conference after conference, with no tangible or constructive result.

"What was President Harding driving at when he said: 'Let us have disarmament on the Pacific?'" was the comment on all sides.

"Those who had hoped that the great war was a war to end war received new life and their hearts began to beat with hope.

"There must be no conflict of aims or ideals," he said.

"There must be no suspicion or distrust.

"Nothing must be allowed to slow

"We must look facts in the face, for if we ignore facts no enduring structure of understanding can be expected.

MELON DAY

There is no difficulty attached to the plan to observe tomorrow as Melon Day. Melons are ripe and they are cheap, and within their rounded covers is packed the sunshine of California summer, the cool breezes of evening, and not a core or stone to interfere with the enjoyment of patriotic task. It is so easy to wax ecstatic over the cantaloupe that it may be said that nothing save the difficulties of rhyme has prevented our poets from making it the subject of enduring verse. To many minds a ride on Pegasus through a melon patch offers joyance more rapturous than any canter through Arcadia.

A few days ago there were more cantaloupes on hand than the market would take. Farmers and others near Turlock appealed to Governor Stephens who sent the market director into the field. The result is that another day upon which we are requested to direct our appetite toward a specific objective has been named and "Melon Day" is to dawn with the morning sun. So let the cantaloupe grace the breakfast table! Thousands of others will do the same and, indeed, so well has the idea taken hold that the situation already is bettered.

When the matter of co-operation becomes as simple as eating a melon no appeal will be made in vain.

THE BILL FOR CARELESSNESS.

Exclusive of that land which was transferred in allegiance as a result of plebiscites Germany lost, because of the war, about 21,547,520 acres. This is a little more than one-third of the forest area burned up in the United States during the war period.

The happy-go-lucky tourist who dips the lighted match from the automobile, leaves the campfire burning or who throws his cigar stub into the undergrowth might pause if he could absorb the magnitude of these figures. The burned over area in this country in the four years is greater than that of New York and Pennsylvania combined, greater than that of Minnesota, Kansas, Idaho, or Utah.

In the list of offenders the Forest Service puts the careless tourist first. As the efforts are increased to provide that tourist with good roads through the forest, camping places, water and firewood so also is increased the hazard. At one camp not far from here 132,000 tourists registered last year.

The government, quite properly, is adding to its equipment to detect the man who starts fires until the ranger has with his other duties those of the detective. A discarded bottle or handkerchief has led to arrest, and men have been traced by the marks in the dust of a peculiar make of tire.

But fines do not restore trees that fall in the flames; penitence, no matter how genuine, will not give back a watershed. The lesson of fire prevention must be drilled into the ears of those who make use of the forests until it becomes first nature. Otherwise we must continue to turn over to the account of carelessness more acres than changed hand as the result of a world war.

WHY CUBA IS POOR.

With the price which sugar brought during the years of the war still impressed on his mind and the current presentment before him that the island is the Mecca for thousands of the wealthy and thirsty, it is difficult for the average American to understand why the country should be so close to bankruptcy. Financially Cuba is all but on the rocks and there is every indication that some kind of intervention in its affairs is close at hand.

The war demand for sugar caused Cuban growers to expand the area devoted to that crop. A contract with the United States prevented them from raising the cost price here to more than fair profit. Today Cuba finds itself with a 4,000,000-ton crop of sugar, only half of which can be consumed in this country, and also finds that tariff revision has made it more difficult to sell that half. The price to the grower had dropped from 22½ cents to 3½ cents the pound.

The problem before the island is to reduce the sugar acreage to what it was before the war, to plant new crops and stimulate new industries. All of this takes capital. The problem of supplying new impetus to Cuban enterprise is one of which this country is to hear much in the weeks that are to come.

BANNED FROM TAHITI.

A new chapter in South Sea literature will be written by Lylin' Bill Pincher, roistering captain of a trading schooner that pokes in and out of the atolls and reefs, sights the sails of the good ship Wisdom II. On board the Wisdom, whose better part is discretion, is Captain Frederick O'Brien, writer and sojourner in idyllic environment, and both are known in most of the ports of the mystic Marquesas.

When Pincher, over in Tahiti, heard that his idealist friend O'Brien had capitalized a blissful visit to the Islands there came wrath to Pincher's heart. Readers of the O'Brien story will remember that the California writer pictured the captain in manner which if truthful might be calculated to stir some of the temper the author ascribed.

No one knows just what happened in the South Seas when Captain Pincher read the O'Brien book but it may be imagined that thatched roofs shook under the typhoon of anger, gentle native girls climbed high trees, and warriors and head hunters searched for shelter. Canvases by the hundreds, it is intimated, were shaken from the easels pitched in the jungles and it took the combined efforts of the colony of artists and writers who have followed Gauguin, Maugham and O'Brien to the land of cotton trousers and floral wreaths to quiet the storm of the captain's anger.

Captain Pincher has slapped a claim on O'Brien for 10,000 francs and costs. If anyone is going to immortalize Pincher, Pincher must be paid. So there is O'Brien, almost in sight of his beloved Tahiti, faced with the knowledge that it will cost him 10,000 francs to drop anchor in the harbor. Unless he thinks the visit worth it, never again will he frolic with the brown beauties, splash in the breakers, or ride in the war canoe with the son of a chief.

O'Brien is off on a two-year cruise. His path will wind among the hundreds of storied islands of the South Pacific and it is just possible that some day it will cross that of the redoubtable and irascible Captain Pincher. Oh, yes, there is another story brewing in the South Seas.

THE DOG HAS HIS DAY

A dog owner whose residence was in Oakland and whose backyard was in Piedmont recently wrote to THE TRIBUNE to find out if two licenses were necessary for the security of the animal. He had been told that when the dog, wearing an Oakland license, wandered out under the clothesline to the rear of the house he was subject to capture by the Piedmont police, and the idea of two tags, two fees, or two sets of official eyes focused on the dog did not appeal to his sense of fitness. According to the poundmasters in the various cities of the Eastbay one license is all that is needed. If an Oakland dog is picked up in Berkeley he may be kept until the owner is notified but no charge is made and the same plan is used elsewhere. The stranger coming to the city with canine attachment is allowed thirty days before securing a local license providing the dog has been licensed in the city from whence it came. Dog-owners, and dogs, too, will be glad to learn that an extra weight of official decoration is not needed.

Tracy is the latest of the valley towns to demonstrate that there is nothing that can stop the progress of the communities in the great East Bay. Ten new business projects including a $70,000 structure, is this one city's contribution to the valley's rising note of optimism.

It is a matter of conjecture whether the man who broke into the church collection box is a desperate criminal or an unfortunate in need of a suspender button.

With the Turks and Greeks battling on the Anatolian front it is time to hear from the man who mixes his literature with geography to the conclusion that Anatole is in France.

AIDS LUMBER MARKET.

An improved financial situation in Japan is indicated by the increasing shipments of lumber from Puget Sound to the Asiatic continent.

The fact that the rate is extremely low—below transportation cost, it is stated—readily explains the eagerness of Japanese interests to get their stocks of raw and manufactured materials from the United States at this time. However, if Japan had not recovered, in part at least, from the depression following last year's disastrous slump in the silk market, even low tariffs would not tempt buyers over there to stock up.

Any revival in the offshore lumber business, no matter how modest its proportions, will be welcome, particularly if it is accompanied by a livelier market in the United States and also an indication of a revival of other commerce.

Slack times have prevailed in the Far East and, particularly in Japan, ever since the abnormal American demand for silk abruptly was curtailed, following the suspension of work in war industries and the consequent curtailment of luxury buying on the part of those who had been receiving extraordinary wages over a period of several years.

Rejuvenation in Japan will be synonymous with an enlarged demand for American products, including Pacific Northwest lumber, in China, Korea and Manchuria. A substantial increase in Seattle's foreign trade during the remaining years of 1921 would help materially in expediting the general upward movement of business resulting from the marketing of this section's bumper crops.—Seattle Times.

NOTES and COMMENT

The news arrives from Atlanta that women are to be admitted to membership in the Ku Klux Klan. It is assuming that women have caught up with men as to certain ruthless proclivities to this figure that they want to join this unlovely order. In this connection the head of the order pays them a tribute by declaring that they are certainly eligible in one respect—they can keep a secret. He gauges this assertion on the fact that they have made 150,000 "robes" for members without giving it away. That may be a test. It is certainly a disclosure that 150,000 robes should have been required already.

Steamer accidents seem to come in cycles. We have had one on the northern California coast, and one on the southern coast, and now a Canadian craft is reported ashore seventy-five miles north of Vancouver. What really is the matter with navigation in the calm Pacific that so many craft fail to stay safely in safe water?

Fortune still seems to be chasing Ray Baker. Boosting him from one political prominence to another, varying the process by marrying him to a very rich widow, it is now stated that his political party having got in the doldrums as to its national status, he will probably be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Nevada. And there will be big odds that he will be elected. Fortune has stood by him in more doubtful emergencies than this would be.

Senator Borah's prediction that Germany will yet, and not distantly, lead in trade may not be so very wild. It has been noticed and mentioned by observers that the Germans have gone resolutely to work while other peoples are quarreling among themselves or keeping up ructions with their neighbors. Such contrasting characteristics will soon tell commercially.

Chicago has a real feud, the thirteenth victim having been achieved. Our Southern feuders have a glint of romance—at least they are American—but these imported vendettas are only bloody and brutal. The melting pot must be relied on for a cure, as restraining laws seem impotent to deal with them.

It is the country's great good fortune that General Wood is universally recognized at home as just the man to govern the Philippines, that the Filipinos want him, and that he sees congenial work in administering the affairs of the country's far-off ward. Everybody is pleased, and the result is likely to be a renewal of the efforts that were going forward when the preceding administration turned things topsy turvy by declaring an impossible policy and sending a fantastic governor to carry it out.

A scientific survey concludes that the necessities of life have increased in price 50 per cent since 1907. That reminds us that prices had begun to crawl upwards before the war. That he had evidently stiffened to the extent that when the war came, with its actual and assumed excuses for sending up costs, the ascent required little extraneous effort. The thing now is that there is poor prospect of prices descending to the former level.

Singular story is that of some Russian dye smugglers. They were carrying aniline dyes in the lining of their vestments. On the way they acquired cooties, which bit them, and in the wounds the dye entered, resulting in blood poison, and the smugglers lost their lives in the unlawful venture. They died of dyes.

The many and recurring accidents are slowing up the tendency to apply aircraft to commercial uses. The government has discontinued most of the aerial postal routes, and though occasional accounts appear of the transportation of passengers, the traveling public is chary. Perhaps a considerable percent of the accidents occur through incompetence, carelessness or a desire to show off, but whatever the cause people refrain from demanding such carriage to an extent that greatly restrains its general adaptation.

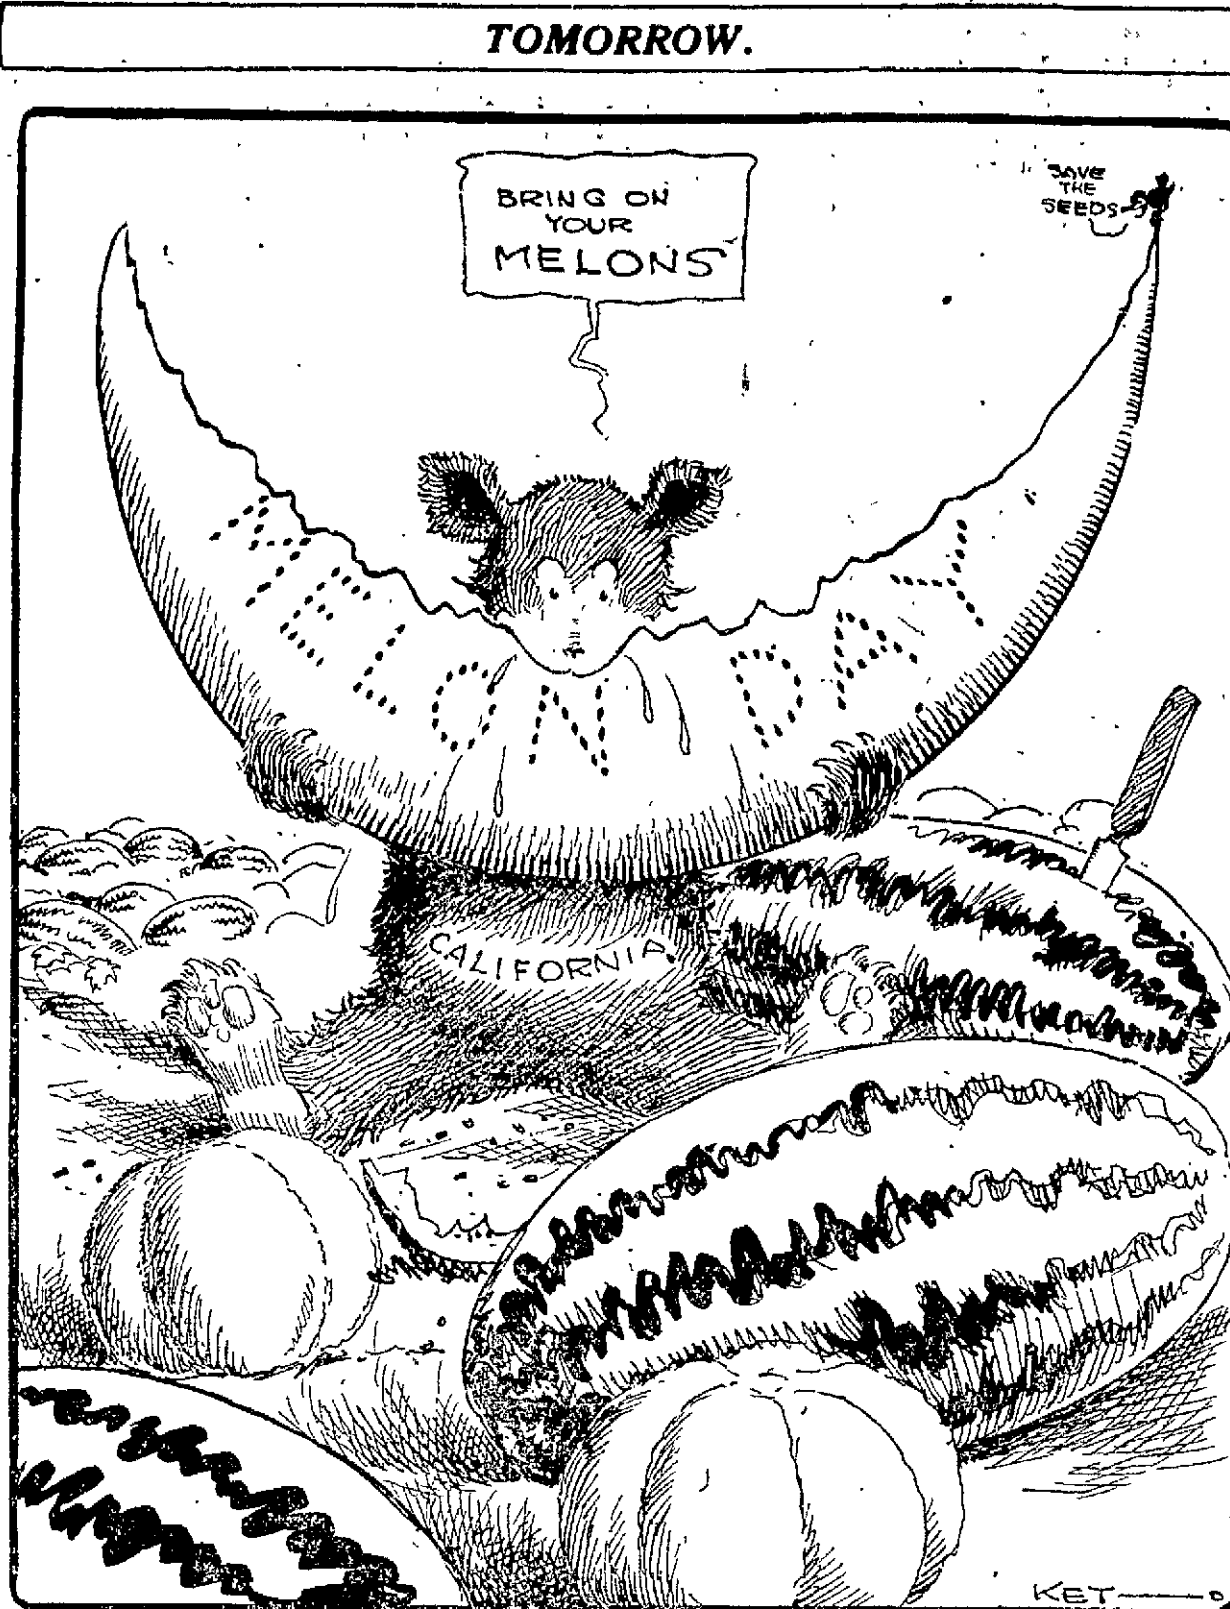

One of the big conventions recently held in San Francisco aspires to the general betterment of the home, and another strives for the alleviation of the feet. Both are important, bearing upon points of contact where life is most acutely felt. If the home is not happy the best possible results otherwise do not ensue, and a person is never at himself when his feet hurt.

Grape prices have shaded off from the dizzy altitude of the last two years. The supposed cause is importations, induced by the altogether funny prices that have paradoxically ruled since the product of the grape has been under the ban as a drink. It is a curious outcome all around.

A question may be raised, though some may think it is final, whether the subconscious attraction of the thirty thousand who attended the great bicycle race was not the possibility of the racers piling up and thus enacting a tragedy. Not everybody is thrilled by such possibility, but a good many seem to be.

If there was any possible way newspaper publishers could realize cent apiece on the useless propaganda and Congressional Records which litter their mail from day to day, they would soon have Morgan and Rockefeller looking like thirty cents," says the Richmond Record-Herald.

From the Woodland Democrat, but no elucidating footnote accompanies it: "Insufferable as is John Enclous's contemptuous remarks about federal courts, it might have been worse. Suppose he had been born twin."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS.

State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson, who has been mentioned as a "possibility" for a gubernatorial candidate, has come out with a statement criticizing Governor Stephens' administration. He says that, "elected three years ago on an economy platform, Governor Stephens has greatly increased state expenses." Anyone who recalls the recent King bill fight, and the necessity for it, and also who reviews the figures which led to the reorganization bill, will be inclined to agree with Treasurer Richardson.—Palo Alto Times.

Libby, McNeil & Libby sent an attorney from Chicago to San Francisco recently to make a thorough investigation of the big water suit against the upriver rice growers. After a thorough examination of the case the attorney reported that it was being conducted in a very satisfactory manner. A legal notice appears in another column of this paper which calls attention to the fact that the Rodeo-Vallejo Auto Ferry Company has secured a lease from the owner of the tideland in front of the town of Torrey, Contra Costa county, and will use the site for a slip and landing place for the ferry steamers A. J. Hanford and Issaquah after the necessary legal action is taken in September.—Vallejo Chronicle.

California is the greatest hop producer in the world and gets the largest yields. The hops are now picked largely by machines, the vines being cut from the roots and hauled to the picking sheds. The hops are picked green and dried in sheds. Sacramento county leads in this state, with Sonoma second, Mendocino third, then Yolo, Tehama, Yuba and Placer.—Ukiah Press.

The recent steamship wreck on the California coast, costing many lives, was caused by hugging the shore to make quicker time than could be made by going a few miles further out, the object being to save expenses. Why a Sense of Humor Is Necessary to Well-Being

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, N. Y. City.

Men and women who lack a sense of humor lose much in life if they do not live shorter lives.

If you cannot laugh—at your friends, with your friends, at yourself—your years will be short in this world and your days long and dreary.

The most trying persons you know are those who never smile, who never shake their sides with laughter, and who never see the funny side of their own troubles.

Really, what uncomfortable parsons men are who take themselves seriously, who talk all the time about their achievements and plans, who are worrying about the mistakes of Congress, who feel apparently that the world would not move without their management of its affairs.

Persons of this sort are like biscuits without baking powder, or like gingerbread without soda. They are heavy and soggy and unattractive.

I honestly believe a good, hearty laugh, when you have to hold your sides and grab hold of your chair to keep from falling on the floor, is the very best of stimulants. It sets the heart to pounding, it drives the blood through the body, it flushes the system, it stimulates the brain and clears the mind.

The reason good-natured, smiling, laughing, happy people have hard muscles, firm skin, ruddy complexion and good digestion is because they have the stimulus of heart and brain action through the nervous reflexes induced by laughter.

Give a man a narcotic or put him into a deep sleep and his digestive functions are delayed. They are sluggish and very badly performed. Horseback riding is one of the best exercises, but I believe laughing runs a close second.

Cultivate the friendship of good-natured people. Learn to see the funny side of things. Don't be a foolish, grinning, giggling idiot, but do try to be a good, wholesome, clean-minded, sensible, humor-seeking citizen, who can laugh at himself and at the world.

Your digestion will be better, your circulation will improve and your span of life will be extended by this attitude toward existence.

GAS ENGINE ORDINANCE PROTESTED

Commissioner, Harried By Protestants, Pro and Con, Sets Day For Those Who Sleep and Those Who Can't

Whelmed by complaints against the proposed ordinance which would shut down gas engines at night when they are operating near residences, Commissioner Frank Colbourn today requested all the citizens interested in the gas engine ordinance to appear in his office tomorrow afternoon and "have it out."

The gas-engine ordinance followed the recent episode at the Union Ice Company plant, where it was alleged that vibrations and noise from the heavy gas engines, working all night, prevented anyone from sleeping well in the neighborhood. Incidentally, an ammonia pipe blew up at the plant and rocked the neighborhood recently, bringing the question to a focus.

The new ordinance would prohibit the operation of gas engines from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m. when such engines have more than 250 pounds compression and are within 200 feet of any residence.

Representatives of various industrial plants say the ordinance would hurt their business and cause a loss of production. On the other hand, residents near these plants assert that the ordinance is too mild.

"We'll get them all together and let them thrash it out," says Colbourn. "We can then determine whether it is best to amend the ordinance."

Mills College Campus Hums With Life of New Semester

Mills College students who arrived from Seattle aboard the Admiral liner President to resume their studies on the local campus. The camera caught them during a farewell serpentine shower as their steamer pulled out. From left to right they are MISS ELIZABETH CONNER, MISS HELEN WEIMAR, MISS HELEN McFEE and MISS DOROTHY LECKENBY.

Mills College welcomed its new students today. The campus, which has been deserted through mid-summer, began to hum again with young life. No estimates have yet been made of the freshman class and upper classwomen who will take their places in the college halls.

EXPERT IS PUT OVER CITY PARKS

Howard Gilkey, Pupil of Burbank and Graduate of U. C., Is Appointed Landscape Architect By Park Directors

Howard Gilkey, landscape gardener, horticulturalist and student under Luther Burbank, has been appointed landscape architect by the board of park directors. His salary will be $3600 per annum. The appointment is subject to approval of the city council.

The creation of the office follows Mayor Davies' recent suggestion that an official be appointed to coordinate control over the improvements of grounds under the park board, playground commission and school board. The two latter organizations are considering the matter. If they agree, and it is said they will, Gilkey will be responsible for the beautification of most of the public grounds in Oakland.

Gilkey's first duty will be to make a survey of the field.

He was fresh from the farm and his cheeks were really glowing when he saw her fall. What he took for blood on her checked knee was merely rouge—and that was all.

It happened at the Greek theater at the University of California. The occasion was the first university meeting, the ingathering of the thousands of old and new students.

To one of the neophytes, she was particularly appealing. He thought of his 12-year-old sister on the little farm at home, child when after watching her, which nearly to the top of the steps, she tripped and fell a short distance. He was the first to reach her side. He lifted her gently.

"Are you hurt?" he queried.

"Not even a scratch," she said. He glanced down. Her knee seemed raw and bleeding. He stooped and as he was about to check the flow of blood with his hands, he said, "But your knees—"

"Hands off, you rube," she shrieked, "it's only rouge."

At the intimate his condition is considered critical.

400 PUPILS SIGN ROLLS AT ST. MARYS

Improvements Made at College During Vacation; Student Body Meet Tomorrow; New Members of Faculty.

Approximately 400 students registered at St. Mary's College today, when the vacation opened for the 1921 fall semester, according to Brother Gregory, president. During the vacation period extensive improvements were made. Officials stated today that the college is in a position to accommodate a record registration.

The student body meeting was postponed until tomorrow, when Albert Duffy, president, will call the meeting.

Fees Fail to Dampen Ardor For Registration at U. C.

BERKELEY, Aug. 15. — Tuition and registration fees will have no effect this year on enrollment at the University of California. Despite the expectations of university authorities, the enrollment at the end of the third day of registration last night exceeded the same period last year by 34 students. A falling off of at least three per cent in registration was predicted by the college officials.

Figures compiled by Recorder James Sutton at the close of registration last night showed a total of 3917 students in the graduate and undergraduate divisions, as compared with 3881 on the same day last year.

Here is the way the students are divided: New graduate students, 326; old graduate students, 333; total graduate students, 659; new undergraduate students, 3429; old undergraduate students, 3552; total undergraduates, 6981; total students, 7640.

The figures for last year are as follows: New graduate students, 324; old graduate students, 331; total graduate students, 655; old undergraduate students, 3514; total undergraduates, 6169; total registration, 6824.

Registration is continuing to date. Stragglers to the number of several hundred are expected.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15. — George A. King, 2214 Briggs avenue, is a carpenter who considers himself out of luck. When he went to work on a building at 1716 Park street, yesterday, he hung his trousers on a peg. When he stopped work he found the trousers, a wallet containing $5 and his watch gone. He reported the theft to the police. Several men looking for work had been about the building during the day and the police think that one of these got away with King's property.

Nerve Pain

Some people think it is rheumatism, others that it is merely a temporary cramp in the muscles—but the pain becomes more annoying, then gradually, as more nerves become involved the whole side becomes stiff and you are unable to move the muscles involved without the most excruciating pain.

Nerve Inflammation is Neuritis and the proper way to reduce nerve inflammation is to feed to the system the essential ingredients that the nerves must have in order to properly function.

Cutting, knife-like pain in the shoulder, sore muscles, stiff neck, neuralgia, headaches and conditions resulting from inflammation of the nerves have been permanently cured by our safe, effective, pleasant-to-take per classwomen who will take their places in the college halls. Sophomores, juniors and seniors are scheduled to register tomorrow. By Thursday the organization of college work for the semester will have been completed and instruction in full swing. The first meeting of the Associated Students is announced for Thursday with Miss Esther Waite, the newly elected president, presiding.

Convocation on Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock will be an impressive ceremony with faculty and students appearing in academic gowns. It will be the signal that a new college year has been formally opened.

Senior women will be hostesses at a reception tonight in honor of newly registered students in Alumnae hall, the informal function marking the first of a series of student entertainments. Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president, will give greeting to the new students tomorrow night at a frolic on the shores of Lake Aliso, at which the college Young Women's Christian Association will be hostess.

Among the young women who already have arrived on the campus from without the state is a quartet of students from Seattle. When they sailed on the Admiral liner President last week a large group of friends were at the dock to bid them "bon voyage" and to speed them away with flowers, candy and serpentine showers. They are Miss Elizabeth Conner, Miss Helen Weimar, Miss Helen McFEE and Miss Dorothy Leckenby, sister of Frank Leckenby, general manager of the Charles H. Lilly Company in Seattle.

A New Cake RecipeNo Baking Required

Take three nickels, or a dime and one nickel, and hand them to your grocer. Name the kind of cake you like best—gold, silver, marble, raisin, nut or chocolate. Then repeat in an audible tone of voice the magic words: "Mother's Cake."

Presto! Before you can say Alameda, the grocer will place before your eyes a freshly baked cake that looks good and tastes better. When you get home, remove the waxed wrapper and see what a wonderfully tender, fluffy cake you've bought. Try a slice and prove by your taste that it contains only the choicest ingredients—that it is fresh, pure and delicious.

Figure up how much you can save by ordering Mother's Cake instead of baking your own. No fuel expense—no failures—no waste of time, energy or materials. Besides, you always get a uniformly baked cake of just the right texture, guaranteed to be sweet and fresh, or your money back.

Phone your grocer to send Mother's Cake; if you are not going to the store. He has a fresh supply of all varieties. Each cake will cut into six slices, and the cost is only 15c. Order enough for the family. N. B.—Kindly give this "recipe" to a friend.—Ad.

DIRECTORY SHOWS EASTBAY GROWTH

Oakland's new city directory, volume 32, containing a list of all business houses, organizations, residences and addresses, etc., has just been issued by the Polk-Husted Directory Company of this city and plans are being made for a city-wide distribution of the book.

There are 901 pages of names of householders, besides men and women in business or employees in the bay section, and making the usual estimate of two and one-half times the directory canvass of 101,360 names, the present population of Oakland and the three suburbs—Berkeley, Emeryville and San Leandro—is 233,400. The United States census of 1920 gave 223,636 for the same localities.

The book presents a decided contrast with the first directory published for Oakland and vicinity in 1859 by R. F. Stillwell. The old volume contained 232 names in the city proper, 551 in Brooklyn township and 239 in the district then called Temescal, or 4123 in all.

Fred M. Husted began publishing a directory for Oakland in 1899, and then estimated the city's population at 61,000, not including Berkeley. On his death in 1906 the business was kept alive by his widow, who later made it permanent by forming a connection with the directory firm of J. L. Polk & Co. and under the new name of the Polk-Husted Company the work has continued.

Bribe Offered, Officer Charges

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 16.—After hearing testimony to the effect that the accused had attempted to bribe Traffic Officer Joe Brandon, Judge W. J. Gannon today sentenced John Tierce, 3485 Shattuck avenue, Oakland, to two days in the county jail for speeding. Tierce pleaded not guilty and asked that the court hear the case. Officer Brandon testified that Tierce had offered him $5 at the time of the arrest, when he alleged that the accused was driving his machine at 33 miles an hour.

ALASKA OFFICERS WERE EFFICIENT, SAYS PASSENGER

Ada B. Smith Testifies Conduct After Week Was Above Reproach.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—Trial of officers and members of the crew of the ill-fated steamer Alaska, charged with negligence in connection with the sinking of the liner more than a week ago off Blunt's reef and the death of more than a score of persons, was resumed today at the customs house before Frank Turner and Joseph P. Dolan, local inspectors of hulls and boilers.

Complete exoneration of the officers and crew of the steamer was given yesterday at the opening session in the testimony of Ada B. Smith, 152 Belvedere street, one of the passengers on the ship. She declared that the conduct of the officers and crew was above reproach at the time and immediately following the catastrophe was above reproach and that the aged doctrine of the sea, "women and children first" was put into practice.

Officers on trial for negligence and unskillfulness are: Captain Harry Hobe, deceased, first mate of the Alaska, W. E. Minto, second mate, T. Du Pree, third mate, P. F. Haskela, and fourth mate, M. J. Albion.

ASSISTED BY CAPTAIN.

Miss Smith testified that she heard the captain giving orders to lower a boat that had one end caught up and that the boat was placed in the water all right. She didn't see any people in the water, she said, although she heard them screaming. She was assisted by Captain Hobe and the first mate when she got into the life boat that brought her to safety, according to her testimony, and they towed away immediately. The boat could not have carried any more.

Miss Smith further testified that the purser told all the passengers to put on life belts, that the small boats were lowered almost immediately and that the commands about lowering the boats came from the deck above her. Women were given the first places in the boats that were lowered as well as in the rest of the boats, she observed. She said she heard no language used by the crew unbecoming a gentleman.

Other witnesses who testified at yesterday's hearing were Mrs. Esther Jackway, 640 Broadway, Oakland; Mrs. J. Wyzaneky, 2514 Rockway avenue, Victoria, B. C.; Miss H. B. McFarland, 1281 Fourth avenue, San Francisco; Howard S. McFarland, New York; and C. L. Aylm of Chicago.

Miss Smith testified that he offered his lifebelt to Captain Hobe, who refused it with a smile and said he walked into the water as his ship sank.

Mrs. Jackway testified that her son committed suicide because he was disgusted with the conduct of a maniac. She declared the boy was in the water at that time and had his legs around someone trying to hold them up and that when he got up it was from exhaustion.

Mrs. Jackway appeared in mourning and had to be assisted to her seat in the hearing room as the result of an injury to her back and the shock of her experiences.

Mrs. Wyzaneky declared that she heard the sailors in her boat use vile and unseemly language and she refused to repeat what McFarland stated that she heard no abusive language and that the crew and officers worked assiduously and handled the boats in a proper manner.

Tribune Helps Bride to Save Her Scorched Jam

An anxious bride, industrially inclined, pens the following appeal to the Information Bureau of the TRIBUNE:

"Industriously putting up preserves and slightly scorched some damson plum jam. Can you tell me if there is any fruit I can add to it or do anything to take the scorched taste away? I do hate to throw it all out. Thanking you for any information on the above subject."

"ANXIOUS BRIDE (Subscriber)." To answer with the burned taste try adding a quantity of quince. Another reader queries as follows:

"Will you kindly answer in your column how to prepare ripe prunes to dry them? What is the formula?"

Select ripe prunes. Remove pits by cutting fruit open with sharp knife. Arrange halves on trays. Start drying at temperature of 110 degrees Fahrenheit and raise gradually to 145 degrees. These fruits are dried with skins on. If you are interested in making home made drier, call at TRIBUNE Information Bureau, fourth floor, and see illustrations and suggestions for making drier of this kind.

HUNT RELATIVES SOCIETY'S PLAN

The Jewish Relief Federation of Alameda county, having its offices at 325-328 Albany building, has established a hunt for relatives of European immigrants, at the solicitation of the joint distribution committee of New York. The aim of this department will be to ascertain the whereabouts of relatives in this country and in the war-stricken European lands for the purpose of information as to their condition, and in many instances for their relief.

This branch will help bring these sorely tried and widely separated relatives in communication with each other. Naturally, the conditions of the war and the lack of communication during the war, many of these people have no means of reaching one another, and the addresses given are often inadequate.

The European field representatives of the joint distribution committee, assisted by European community organizations, are actively doing valuable work in this line.

All are welcome to attend, free of any fees or charges.

Samuel Ginsburg, executive secretary of the Jewish Relief Federation, is in charge of the Location Department branch.

KOREA PRESIDENT COMES TO FIGHT RULE OF JAPAN

Dr. Syngman Will Endeavor To Appear Before Disarming Parley.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The first foreign delegation to the disarmament conference in Washington in December arrived in San Francisco today on board the steamer Mail from Honolulu. He is Dr. Syngman Rhee, president of the Korean Republic.

Although not officially invited to the conference, President Rhee said that he had received an intimation from Washington that the Korean question would be placed on the table and that it had been suggested that he be present. He will confer with the Korean leaders in the United States after which he will await the opening of the conference.

Korea is in a worse state of affairs than Ireland. We are ruled with an iron hand. We have never accepted a dictum of Japan. It was forced upon us by the military. At the conference we are going to demand complete independence from Japan. Whether or not it will be in the hands of the general conference to bring this about, of course remains to be seen. Korea can abide by no provision whereby Japan is allowed to keep us under her thumb.

"On this trip to America I have been hounded by spies, and for weeks before I left my own country, Japanese spies were trailing me and night Japan knows my stand and her agents are doing everything to prohibit my appearance at the conference in Washington."

TUESDAY, AUGUST 16.

Bank clerks and others who live in Vermont are enjoying a holiday today. It was in 1777 that the Battle of Bennington was fought in that state. This has been quite a day for patriots and patriotic utterance. Jonathan Roberts, the man who said "Never despair of the Republic," was born in 1771, and Nathan Hale, author, and not he who had but one life to give his country, began his one life in 1784. It was in 1858 that the first message was sent over the Atlantic cable. History doesn't say whether it was "Hello" or "How are you?"

"I would rather be the first man in a little Iberian village than the second in Rome," said Julius Caesar, and the best man at my wedding thinks the same thing.

A lot of persons are more than ever against the motion picture censorship. It is decided not to give out the names of those pictures that meet with disapproval.

According to the milliners' convention a bonnet a month is the proper schedule for American women. The victorian husband, figuring up his year's budget, can think of twelve good reasons as to why such conventions should be prohibited.

If this new law provides $400 exemption for dependents in the income tax rate of $200 is carried on a husband and will discover that his regard for his family has been multiplied by two.

Darling, I love you twice as much as I did yesterday. For you exempt me twice as much on the tax I have to pay.

GUESS WHO THIS IS FROM? Sir, we do not wish to be unduly inquisitive, but what has become of Myrtles? This silence astounding.

her warrants investigation and we urge that the proper officials be notified at once. Husband's property is evident in much of the poetry. Appreciatively yours, C-S-22

AND JUST FOR THAT And had we been of one accord. Oh, fair Myrtles, Our life had been as fragrant as a pure leaf filler. But when I saw you seated there, I'd like to kill you— For 'cause I ordered chocolate and you took vanilla.

Once in every woman's life says one of the men who works very hard several desks to the north she felt called upon to buy a red coat.

The chiropodists have granted equal suffrage to the women. Now let's hear from the coin slates.

One cannot help but notice that in the effects of most of those who are indicted nowadays are found shaves of original poems. Poor souls say's Amartyas, to break into print they must first break into jail.

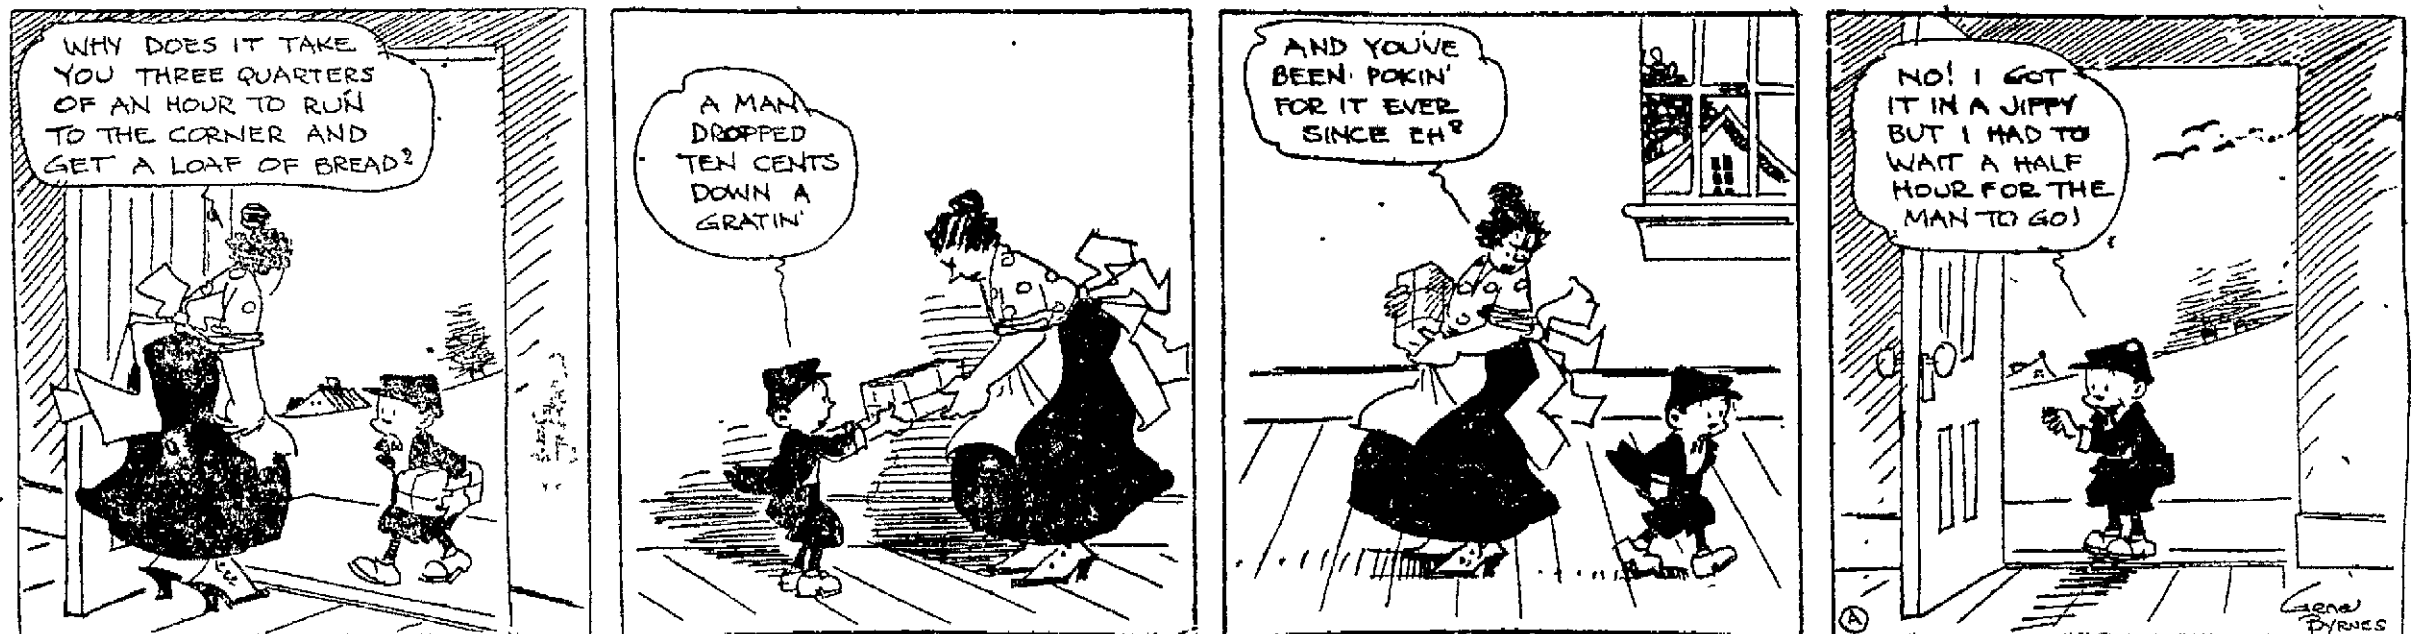

As for the woodchopper who found out that he was worth $17,000,000, he cannot help but wonder how far he threw that ax.

COAST LEAGUE PITCHERS ARE HAVING LAUGH AT BATTERS NOW

HARRY KRAUSE'S PITCHING HELPING TO KEEP THE OAKS IN FIGHT FOR THE PENNANT

JIMMY CAVENEY AGAIN TAKES HITTING CROWN FROM HACK MILLER

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Forty-two regulars in the Pacific Coast League this season are hitting above the .300 mark, compared to nineteen last season. But from the way things have been breaking for the top-notch hitters in the last few weeks, it is possible that there will not be more than twenty batting above that mark at the end of the present season. Last season Earl Sheely finished as the leading hitter with .371, while now Jimmy Caveny of the San Francisco Seals is now found as the leader with an average of .361, taking the lead away from Hack Miller of the Oaks who got but three hits all last week off the Vernon pitchers. So the best hitter for the whole of last season finished with an average ten points better than that held by the present leader.

In a way that would serve as good food for an argument that someone would want to put up about the baseballs being livelier this season, but the fact that there are twenty-three more men batting over the .300 mark this year than there were last year is shot back at the gent who might point out the difference between the averages of the leading better this year and last. Also while the second best hitter in the league last season finished with .347, the second best this year has .355, and he is Hack Miller of the Oaks. There are six other batsmen over .340 this year, as compared to five last year, and the "lively ball" is being used, is the most likely to win. It is at least a dozen athletes in the Coast League who will not doubt say that they are being given a new deal by saying a livelier ball is being used this season than in the past. Those gentlemen are ones who have been used for years in the mark last season, but who are building up a reputation for themselves with the way they are batting.

Chief among them is Jimmy Caveny of the Seals. Today we find him leading the league in hitting, but whereas last season he hit but .279, next is Jimmy O'Connell, another Seal who hit only .262 in last season's number of games as he has played to date. His average now is .341, a gain of eight points in one week. We cannot overlook the veteran Buddy Ryan, who is hitting the .335 this year compared to .327 last year. They said all last year that Heine had the little ball, but his inability to swing the bat with effect. Just imagine, the little ball only .216 last year, while the big ball is now .331 mark. Some improvement for a youngster. No doubt, Manager Gavy Cravath has given Heine some pointers on hitting. Bill Stump is another veteran who shows a vast improvement in his batting, .330 compared to only .256 for last year.

Three Oaks Hitting Much Better Than Last Season.

Now we get to some Oakland players who are also showing great improvement in bringing Mr. Baseball Bat into contact with Mr. Ball. Art Koehler claims .315 as his batting average, a lively ball is helping Cooper in his hitting. Claude was focused to hit well over the .300 mark last year, but the "lively ball" is helping him in the batting. Too much belief must not be given to the lively ball being the cause of all the heavy hitting in the Coast League, for the number of heavy hitters in the league last year who are not hitting as well this year is a few. Krause Keeps Up Good Work For the Oaks

Big Southpaw Added Two More Wins Last Week; Now Has 18.

Johnny Couch of the Seals is leading the Coast League pitchers with twenty wins and six defeats, and is being trailed by three southpaws, Rinehart of the Angels, and George Winn and Harry Krause of the Oaks. Couch was batted from the box Sunday afternoon but escaped charge of defeat as the score was tied when he quit. Krause has won eighteen games for the Oaks. He added two wins to his list last week at the expense of the Vernon Tigers. Winn has won twelve and lost five games for the Oaks. Wiesner Dell has won nineteen games for the Vernon Tigers and lost nine. Paul Fittory of the Sacramento Coyotes has also won eighteen games, but lost eleven. The pitching records follow:

TOO MUCH BOOSTING HAS SPOILED NUMEROUS BOXING PROSPECTS

Extravagant Claims Cause Customers To Expect Knock-Out Too Often.

By BOB SHAND

How does Henry Borba compare with Bat Ortega, Jack Reeves, Frankie Denny and that kind? The boys are asking that question all over town following the successful local debut of the Crows Landing boxer at the auditorium last Wednesday night. The question will have to be laid on the table for a long time. Should Borba knock Joe Roberts for a goal tomorrow evening his friends will no doubt claim that he is in the class Ortega was a pair of years ago, but it would be better to wait a while. Joe Roberts is a fair boy who has been breaking better than fifty-fifty in the bushes, but a victory over him will not make Borba the champion or anything like that. Now that Billy Murray has assumed the management of the Crows Landing scrapper some extravagant claims are being made for him. The trouble with this boast stuff is that if he does not knock 'em dead every time he starts they will give him the W. K. razz.

If Borja gets over in good shape tomorrow night he will top the card in the following week with another welterweight. Henry's style is quite popular with the local customers and they are anxious to see more of him. The little red book promoter Simpson carries in his vest pocket are the names of some of the money of him. Borja every chance to demonstrate his real class and if Henry succeeds in making a killing at the Casino, Simpson has in sight for him then he can go east with a chance of getting in the big time. The money of Henry's friends should not consider him unbeatable and the customers of the Casino should not consider him unbeatable. The money of the champion some day are only hurting him but it has happened before and it will happen again. The money of the champion some day are only hurting him but it has happened before and it will happen again. Godfrey All Stars

Trim Vallejo Giants

Godfrey's All Stars journeyed to Vallejo and defeated the fast Valles 11 inning contest. In a hard fought battle between two teams it was Godfrey who came out on top. The game was a grand pitchers' battle between Godfrey's pitcher, Jimmie O'Donnell, and Vallejo's pitcher, Ed Brown. O'Donnell pitched a complete game while Brown pitched four innings. Both pitchers were excellent. O'Donnell allowed but 2 scattered hits, walked

Bully Shade Home
With Lot of Tiles.

Bully Shade of Concord arrived home last night from Australia, via Peterson, Morris.

Vancouver, and will remain in this vicinity for a couple of weeks. Billy left here 18 months ago, an ordinary four-pounder who was just getting by at Broadland rink and the Auditorium. Today he is the heavy-weight champion of Australia and has a far bankroll that he accumulated during the process of fecking all the Australian fighters who would face him.

When Shane first arrived in Australia he was a welterweight, so he went out and won the title in that class. Growing into a middleweight, he took the 158-pound championship, and a little later an-

Continuing to grow Billy thought he was able to battle the heavies and took a chance. He made good when he knocked out Lloyd the former

Charles was croaky and on the verge of a fit when the fight finished. Shinde wants a crack at Georges Carpentier and will bet all the pounds, shillings and pence he made

RETAIL GROCERS' EXECUTIVE IS CALLED BY DEATH

E. S. Hogan, Secretary of Association, Succumbs To Attack of Acute Indigestion.

E. S. Hogan, for ten years executive secretary of the Retail Grocers' and Merchants' Association of Alameda county, died at his home, 5941 Taft avenue, early this morning after a brief illness. He was stricken with acute indigestion last week but appeared sufficiently recovered to return to his desk yesterday. Weakness impelled his friends to take him home from the headquarters of the association of which he was the leading spirit.

A grocery business in Berkeley was the first mercantile venture of Hogan after his retirement as a school teacher. He was secretary of the Retail Grocers' Association before becoming secretary and manager for the grocery association.

When a few weeks ago Hogan attended the convention of the National Retail Grocers' Association in Kansas City as a delegate from the local body, it was his first trip outside of California. He visited a son in Maine before returning to the coast.

A meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association called for tonight will probably be adjourned in memory of the secretary, according to those prominent in the organization.

Hogan is survived by a widow, Mrs. Mabel F. Hogan, and two children, Harry C. Hogan and Mrs. John C. Seavay. He was the brother of Louis E. George, Frank, Walter H., Cora and Clara Hogan. Mrs. Mame Dorr, Mrs. Philip DuVal, Mrs. John Perry, Mrs. B. K. Young, and Mrs. A. H. He was born in Lodi and was 55 years old. Funeral services will be held from Masonic Temple under the auspices of Live Oak Lodge, No. 61, P. & A. M. Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WOMAN AUTHOR DIES.
NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Aug. 16.—Mrs. X. Harriet Prescott Spofford, novelist, died at her home, Deer Island, yesterday. She was born at Calais, Maine, in 1835.

Trick Turned On Hazers by Lone Freshie

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—The tables were turned yesterday by one lonely "freshie" at the University who forced three hundred sophomore students to do his bidding.

"Freshie" had been put through the paces by jeering second year men. They did their bidding nicely.

A husky newcomer was captured. "Whistle a tune," commanded the "freshie" after the "freshie's" coat had been turned inside out, his trousers rolled up and other indignities heaped upon him.

The "freshie" whistled. Three hundred laughing sophomores rose to their feet and took off their caps. The grins died on their faces.

The performing freshman had launched into the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Cases Await Decision In Anita Whitney Case

Pending a decision on the constitutionality of the criminal syndicalism law, upon which Miss Anita Whitney was convicted in 1919, Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church has continued the trials of seven men accused of violation of the law until October 17.

A decision on the constitutionality of the law is expected at any time. Judge Church announced in continuing the cases.

The seven men accused and who are awaiting trial before the Superior court are J. C. Reed, J. H. Dolson, J. H. Ragsdale, G. E. Snyder, Clarence Tobey, Edric B. Smith and Alex Bedacht.

UKIAN GIRL WRDS.

LIVINGSTON, Aug. 16.—At the home of the bride's parents in Ukiah, Miss Selma Holzhauer, for three years a most successful teacher in the local school, recently became the bride of John Herndon, a well-known Livingston man. When Miss Holzhauer left in June, at the close of the school term, it was whispered that Herndon was soon to claim her as his bride. She is a strikingly pretty young woman with a charming personality which has made her a popular favorite here.

5000 CELEBRATE OPENING OF FAIR AT BERKELEY

Business Men of San Francisco and Oakland Given Official Welcome.

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—More than 5000 people attended the opening of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Fair last night. The tent at Center and Milvia streets was thronged throughout the evening. Secretary Charles Keeler of the Chamber of Commerce and Manager A. A. Trempe of the fair declared that the attendance left no doubt of the success of the undertaking.

Gay with flags and bunting, the tent resembled a carnival scene. Booths filled with exhibits lined both sides of three aisles.

It was Chamber of Commerce Night in honor of the opening. Large delegations were present from the San Francisco and Oakland Chambers of Commerce. President Curtis Wright of the chamber officially opened the fair, while Mayor Louis Bartlett gave an address of welcome. Postmaster Joseph Kosborrough represented Oakland, calling attention to the big "boost spirit" promoted by a fair of the kind undertaken and the co-operation of merchants making for its success.

CITY INDUSTRY SHOWN.

"This exhibition informs the world that Berkeley is not a college town merely," but a live industrial center, acting in the business of making things," declared W. H. Levings, director of publicity of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

"And it is a matter of the greatest significance that this industrial fair is being held here under the shadow of the world's greatest university at a time when business and education are earnestly striving, through co-operative effort, to improve the lot of the world's people."

Levings said that the fair is a more practical notion of business problems and business methods.

Motion pictures were presented by George S. Stone depicting the history of California agriculture in "The Sunshine Pickers."

Miss Carma White, protégée of Ruth S. Denis, assisted by a company of five girls, presented dances. The numbers included "The Three Little Sisters," "The Storm," "Tumblers from the Y. M. C. A. entertained."

The doors of the tent will be open every afternoon and evening until Saturday. Various social shows, merry-go-round, Punch and Judy show and other attractions are offered for young and old alike.

Stadium Fund Appeal Is Made From Booth

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—An appeal for support for the proposed stadium is being made at the University of California booth at the fair.

Graduate Manager Luther Nichols was in charge of the booth last night, distributing literature telling of stadium plans to hundreds of visitors.

The campaign for funds for the stadium will open on September 15. A $100 subscription pays for two seats at the big game each year for the first five years and reserves two seats at the big game each year for the second five years.

CORNISH RESIGNS AS CITY ATTORNEY

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—Frank V. Cornish, city attorney for the past two years, today tendered his resignation to the council, which, upon motion of Mayor Louis Bartlett, was accepted, and Lemuel D. Sanderson, now acting secretary to the mayor, and acting city attorney while Cornish was on his vacation, was appointed to fill the position. Cornish was retained as associate counsel without pay.

Following Cornish's resignation, George Clark, assistant city attorney, also presented his resignation, which was accepted without comment.

Both Mayor Bartlett and Cornish denied that the resignations had resulted from political differences. Cornish said: "I haven't the time to give to the affairs of the city."

Cornish's salary was $250 per month, while that of Sanderson was fixed at $150. Sanderson was graduated from the University in 1915 and was a lieutenant in the 14th Field Artillery during the war, and has been in the service of the city in various ways during the past several months.

New Churches Will Cost Four Millions

LONG BEACH, Cal., Aug. 16.—Four million dollars will be spent in the construction of new churches within the next ten years in Southern California, according to announcements made recently at the convention of the Christian church held here. This sum, it was said, will be distributed among fifty or more churches. One central edifice, however, will be erected in the downtown section of Los Angeles, as the outstanding place of worship in the west. In connection with this Christian church will be maintained a large auditorium, to be neighbored by offices of various missionary organizations.

Financing of the building program has been started, it was announced.

Playground Commission, is in charge of a booth devoted to a display of recreational activities. A miniature city park has been designed by Park Superintendent Carl Blidenbach.

Red Cross Canteen Has Southern Menu

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—Real Southern style home cooked meals is an attraction being offered at the Red Cross canteen at the fair.

Eight booths are in charge of the women of the Red Cross, under the direction of Mrs. Jo S. Mills. Mrs. N. T. Townsend is in charge of the cooks at the Southern booth. Her assistants include Miss Alma Carlisle, Mrs. George T. Gosling, Mrs. L. Curtis, Miss Bessie Hill, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Weightman Smith and others.

Town and Gown Club workers are in charge of Mrs. Cutler McLeneagan, while Mrs. R. A. Berry is presiding over Twentieth Century Club's booth. Wives of the Federal Board students at the university are serving as candy girls.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 16.—The first anniversary of Woodstock Lodge, No. 491, F. & A. M., will be celebrated with a supper in the Adelphi clubrooms this evening. The supper will be followed by a dance.

Admits Theft of Bonds From Employers and Asks For Probation.

Lester G. Ayres today pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzlement before Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church, and requested an investigation of his case by Leonard D. Compton, adult probation officer, which was ordered. Ayres was charged with embezzling $1700 in Liberty bonds from the Great Western Power company, where he formerly held a responsible position.

At the time of his arrest Ayres, in admitting his pecuniary blunders, blamed his downfall upon his passion for gambling, declaring he spent all the money he took from the Great Western Power company in gambling.

He admitted his gambling habits in Emeryville. He admitted that the total of his thefts largely exceeded the sum charged in the indictment.

This is Ayres' first appearance in court and because of this, and in view of the fact that a wife and small child are entirely dependent upon him, it is probable that he will be admitted to probation when he comes before the court for report and sentence on August 30.

Two Sentenced For Theft of Tools

BERKELEY, Aug. 16.—Harry King, 29, and Morris Dunn, 19, mechanics of 1164 Tenth street, Berkeley, were today sentenced by Judge Robert Edgar to 60 days in the county jail on petty larceny charges. A collection of stolen goods was found in the home of the two men when the police raided the place on charges that illicit liquor was being sold.
